

Sinclair's decision to air a one-sided political advertisement in the form of a documentary is a clear violation of FCC rules and should be stopped.

Basic principles of fairness and equal time are being violated and I don't see how the FCC can remain silent about this rampant abuse of the public trust.